

500 Protestant Leaders To Attend Convocation

More than 500 Protestant ministers, religious leaders and students will attend the 14th annual Ministers Convocation at the University of Southern California, Jan. 30-31 and Feb. 1.

The meeting will be sponsored by the Southern California Council of Churches and USC; all sessions will be held in Hancock Auditorium.

PRINCIPAL speakers will be Dean Geddes MacGregor, of USC's graduate school of religion, and Dr. Martin E. Marty, associate editor of The Christian Century and pastor of the Lutheran Church of the Holy Spirit, Elk Grove, Ill.

Both will give a series of three lectures, one on each of the days of the Convocation. Theme for Dean MacGregor's addresses will be: "Christianity and the Humanistic Tradition;" theme for Dr. Marty's series, "The Possibility of Preaching."

DR. MARTY is the author of four books and the editor of one, all published in the last few years. He is a member of the staff of The Pulpit, The American Lutheran and Response and does a weekly newspaper column for the Paddock papers.

Dean MacGregor, a native of Scotland, was educated at Edinburgh, Oxford and Paris and has three doctorates. He is the author of 10 books, most of them published in both American and British editions. Dean MacGregor assumed his position at USC when the Graduate School of Religion was reactivated in 1960.

"It takes a lot of unity to make a community." — Jack E. Dudley, Havana (Fla.) Herald.

Shell to Open Local Office

Joseph Shell, candidate for governor, will officially open his Torrance campaign headquarters Tuesday, Jan. 30, at 1112 Crenshaw Blvd.

Ribbon cutting ceremonies are scheduled for 3 p.m. Managers of the campaign headquarters will be Kenneth Gordon and Philip Le Feuvre.

Besides being scheduled to appear at the opening of his campaign headquarters here, Shell will also speak to the Peninsula Republican Men's Club the same day at the South High School auditorium. The program is scheduled for 8 p.m.

"There's nothing wrong with a good political joke—unless it gets elected." — June Kysilko, Washington (D. C.) Roll Call.

"The best way to get ahead is to have one." — Allan A. Koreivo, Rutherford (N. J.) South Bergen News.

RARE TREAT . . . Mrs. Paul Saffo of 1 Crest Rd. East, Rolling Hills, donned her heavy shoes and coat before venturing out into the snow which blanketed the area Monday. Unlike residents of many states, Rolling Hills residents only had to contend with the snow for several hours. (Herald Photo)
